TCAGO COMPETITION WINNERS

by Dee Ann Crossley

The annual TCAGO student competition was held in April at Westwood Lutheran Church, St. Louis Park. Westwood's organ was very successfully rebuilt and enlarged by Dobson Organ Builders in the past year. There were seven undergraduate competitors from Minnesota and Iowa, whose playing was an inspiration to all who heard them. To think that they will go on to be church musicians, teachers and/or recitalists is at once encouraging and comforting to all of us who care about the organ.

Christopher Jacobson

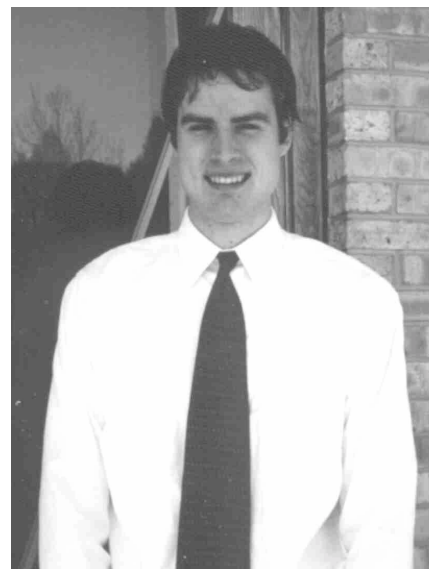

First Prize winner is Christopher Jacobson, a senior at St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota, where he is a student of Dr. John Ferguson. In his high school years, Christopher's organ studies were with Yvaine Duisit, a former student of Maurice Durufle. At that time he performed as a soloist with the Blue Ridge Orchestra, the Concert Soloists of Washington and the North Carolina Chamber Symphony. In 2001 Mr. Jacobson won First Prize in the Paul Manz Bach and Hymn Organ Competition. He has served as Organ Scholar at St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral, Minneapolis and was the Second Prize winner in the 2002 TCAGO Student Competition. Next year he will attend the Eastman School of Music as a graduate student of David Higgs. His musically exciting performance of the Sowerby Pageant in the competition was unforgettable. Christopher will play in the competition at the Region VI convention in St. Joseph, Missouri in June.

Second Prize winner is Andrew Schaap, a senior at Dordt College, Sioux Center, Iowa, where he is a student of Dr. Joan Ringerwole. A native of Illinois, he began piano lessons at age four. He is presently in his sixth year of organ study. He has served as organist in churches for over a decade, and plans to pursue a career in church music. His Bachelor's degree is in organ performance and pedagogy. Next fall Andrew will begin a M.M. degree in organ performance. His playing of the Dupre

Carillon in the competition was masterful.

Judges for the competition were James Biery, Dr. Charles Luedtke and Dr. Melanie Ninnemann.

Many thanks go to the Schubert Club of St. Paul for sponsoring the $1,500 first prize and to TCAGO member Philip Asgian for generously providing the $900 second prize. Thanks also go to Dr. Kristina Langlois, Director of Music at Westwood Lutheran, who was especially hospitable and helpful during the competition. □

DEAN'S LETTER

Dear Colleagues,

The excitement is building and I only wish that all of you could be part of the Executive Board Meetings as we discuss and plan the future of TCAGO. Some things you need to know. The request from National Headquarters to support the Annual Fund by all members giving even a small amount in order to show their participation was a challenge picked up by your Executive Board. They agreed to support the Annual Fund by each member of the Board sending an individual check to National for the Annual Fund. That should be a real incentive for all our members to support this effort. It is not just the amount you contribute, but more importantly the fact that you contribute. Wouldn't it be awesome if 50 percent of our TCAGO membership would individually support this Fund? The Board voted to send one dollar for each member of TCAGO ($350) as the Chapter contribution to the Annual Fund. Did you know that our annual dues cover only 40 percent of the costs of National Headquarters? They need our help.

The dates for the 2008 Annual Convention were approved: June 27 through July 4.

Now the work begins in earnest. There is a place for all our members in this huge project. We need you. Please consider serving on one of several committees as we move forward. Call Bill Stump, our Convention Coordinator and offer your help.

We are negotiating with the University School of Music (Jeff Kimpton, director, and Dr. Dean Billmeyer, Professor of Organ) to establish the TCAGO Organ Archive Library. The gift of the huge library of Bob Pope will be the beginning of what we hope will be a wonderful resource for study for our members, students and organ devotees in the larger five-state area. There is still much work to be done and we will keep you apprised of our progress.

Please save the evening of Monday, September 29th. A wonderful dinner party is being planned to honor Michael Barone. This will be a party not to be missed. Get out your tuxes and ball gowns; we are going to do this just right!

God is working his purpose out and He has something in mind for you!

Blessings,

HYEON JEONG ORGAN RECITAL

Hyeon Jeong will present an organ recital at St. Thomas Aquinas Chapel at the University of St. Thomas on Monday, June 16 at 8:15 pm.

Letters to the Editor

Letters to the Editor are always welcome.
Please send, fax or email letters to Barb Herzog.

Hyeon Jeong holds the Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in Organ Performance from the University of Michigan, where she received the prestigious Regent Fellowship. During her study she was awarded many honors such as the Rackham Grant and Dean's Grant from the University of Michigan, the Graduate Scholarship from the University of Cincinnati and the Presidential Honor from Yonsei University.

Since graduation she has taught at Indiana University-Purdue University in Indianapolis and currently serves as Associate Organist and Choirmaster at Saint Michael and All Angels Church in Dallas, one of the largest Episcopal churches in the United States.

She is the First Prize Winner of the Fort Wayne National Organ Competition and the Flint International Organ Competition. Her other awards include the top prize in the Mader National Organ Competition and the first runner-up prize in the Dublin-Ireland International Organ Competition. She also received a medal as one of four Lauréats in the Concours International d'Orgue Grand Prix de Chartres. Dr. Jeong keeps an active recital schedule throughout North America, Europe and Asia, and has been featured on many broadcasts including MPR's internationally broadcast, Pipedreams. In addition to giving many organ recitals, she frequently performs on harpsichord as both soloist and ensemble member.

HOUSE OF HOPE 2003 SUMMER CARILLON RECITAL SERIES

by Paul Campbell

The House of Hope Presbyterian Church, 797 Summit Avenue, St. Paul, announces its annual Summer Carillon Recital Series for 2003. The performances have become something of a local tradition; listeners gather on the church green with lawn chairs, blankets and picnic baskets; the laughter of children at play enhances the cheerful atmosphere, but provide no competition for the Noyes Memorial Carillon.

The series kicks off with the traditional Independence Day recital on Friday, July 4 at 4:00 pm by House of Hope staff Carillonneur David Johnson. Lemonade will be served on the church lawn.

The subsequent performances are all on July Sunday afternoons at 4:00 pm (except July 6). July 13 will feature Hylke Banning, Carillonneur of Amersfoort, The Netherlands. George Matthew, Jr., Carillonneur of Middlebury College, Vermont, will perform on July 20. July 27 will feature Julia Walton, Carillonneur, Okemos, Michigan.

Ms. Walton will also play half-hour recitals at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, July 28 and Tuesday, July 29 prior to the House of Hope Organ Institute performances on those evenings.

The carillon recitals are free and open to the public, and proceed in rain or shine, as there are ample vantage points for indoor listening on the House of Hope campus. ☐

ESCAPE THE RUSH!
 SUMMER ORGAN CONCERTS AT THE CATHEDRAL OF SAINT PAUL

by Marilyn Biery

The Cathedral of St. Paul will present a series of three Friday afternoon organ concerts in July at an unusual time: 5-6 pm. These "Escape the Rush!" concerts are scheduled to appeal to downtown or Cathedral Hill workers, devotees of the Cathedral Hill area restaurants, lovers of organ music, frustrated rush hour drivers, and anyone who would enjoy listening to an hour of organ music in the late afternoon at the serene and awe-inspiring setting that is the Cathedral of St. Paul, followed by the temptation of the many wonderful restaurants in the Cathedral Hill and downtown St. Paul area.

The series of three concerts will be performed by resident Cathedral organists Marilyn and James Biery. Friday, July 11 James will perform, Friday, July 18 Marilyn will perform, and Friday, July 25 the Bierys will present a concert of duo organ music and music for two organs, with special guest James Hopkins, composer from Pasadena, California.

The featured music on these concerts will include works by Minneapolis composer Libby Larsen, including her new solo organ work, On a Day of Bells. Marilyn premiered this piece for the TCAGO in October, 2002. Both Bierys will play music by St. Paul composer David Evan Thomas, including his ...Of Things Hoped For..., written for James Biery, and selections from his new set of chorale preludes on Welsh tunes. The third concert in the series will highlight two works by James Hopkins: Chantasy for two organs, and the world premiere of Psalm Variations for organ duet, dedicated to Marilyn and James Biery.

James Biery was appointed Director of Music at the Cathedral of St. Paul in St. Paul, Minnesota in 1996. He has recorded the music of Marcel Dupré for AFKA and Naxos. A disc of Dupré's Passion Symphony and Fifteen Pieces was recorded on the 137-rank Austin organ at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Hartford, Connecticut. The Naxos recording is Volume I in a series comprising the complete organ works of Dupré.

James has made a particular study of late 20th century advances in the rhythmic interpretation of Gregorian chant, especially the scholarship relating to the interpretation of 10th and 11th century St. Gaul and Metz neumes. The Cathedral Choir is one of only a few choirs in North America to regularly sing chant (the Introit and Communio each Sunday) according to these principles.

An active composer of music for the church, James has over thirty organ and choral compositions in print. His publishers include MorningStar, Concordia, Augsburg-Fortress, GIA, Oregon Catholic Press, and, most recently, Boosey & Hawkes.

MEET YOUR BOARD MEMBERS

by Jackie Holstrom

Writing a biography for myself is always a somewhat dreaded task, as I have not only never studied out East or in Europe, I have never even traveled there. I have also never won any prestigious awards of general-public interest. I came into my work as a church musician as many of us do, by beginning to do the work as a young person, and then realizing much later that it was what God wanted me to do with my life.

I began playing organ for church when I was 13. I was a volunteer, but when I look back I conclude that I should probably have been paying the church. I had no clue how to play the instrument, and registration and the pedals below my feet were a mystery. I entertained myself in the balcony by alternately wafting down pieces of paper to see whose head they would land on and eating sunflower seeds and drinking soda pop confiscated from home. It didn't occur to me that the priest could likely see everything I was up to.

music. I was flopped out on the couch one day after work, and my husband came home, and I announced, "I've discovered what I'm meant to do with my life! I was meant to be a church organist!" He replied, "No kidding," and the rest, as they say, is history. I began studying with Dr. Kim Kasling, who has taught me everything I know about playing the organ.

I love being in church music, because I think the best place for the best music is in church. I love the opportunity to affect people's worship weekly with what I've prepared, whether it's a choir or organ piece, and I basically love hanging around churches, the bigger and creepier, the better. I stay grounded when things go wrong by remembering what Mother Theresa said. "We're not called to be successful, we're called to be faithful." Repeat three times when your postlude completely unravels.

One thing I become more convinced of as the years go by is my sense that the future of excellence in church music depends on our commitment to young people. It is easier and more enduring to show children how wonderful, fun and interesting quality music can be than it is to electro-shock an adult out of a life-long pop stupor. Take a risk! Sock some money into your youth programs and staff them with brilliant, creative directors. Our future depends on it.

I feel uniquely honored to be a board member of the TCAGO. It is a privilege to be of whatever help I am capable of in this capacity. I firmly believe in the mission of the organization, and am so grateful it exists for we whose hearts are completely in church work. □

HOUSE OF HOPE PRESENTS NINTH ORGAN INSTITUTE

by Nancy Lancaster

The House of Hope Presbyterian Church, St. Paul, Minn., will present the ninth House of Hope Organ Institute July 27-30, 2003. The focus of the conference will be the life and music of French composer Louis Vierne (1870-1937). Guest teachers and performers will be Martin Jean, organist, professor at Yale University School of Sacred Music; Ben van Oosten, organist at the Grote Kerk in The Hague, organ professor at the Rotterdam Conservatory; Brigitte de Leersnyder, lecturer, authority on Vierne and author of a forthcoming book on Vierne.

Martin Jean will play the opening organ recital on Sunday evening, July 27, preceded by a performance of the Messe Solennelle performed by House of Hope's Motet Choir, Thomas Lancaster, conductor, and organists Nancy Lancaster and Dee Ann Crossley. Ben van Oosten will play an organ recital on Tuesday evening, July 29. On Monday evening, July 28, there will be a concert of Vierne's rarely heard chamber music. The daily schedule will include lectures, masterclasses and panel discussions. The final session, on Wednesday, will be a registrants' recital. The church's two 19th century French organs (1878 Merklin and 1852 attrib. to Ducroquet) will be used in the conference as well as the C. B. Fisk, Op. 78 and the 2001 Jaekel organs.

The concerts are open to the public without charge. A brochure with complete information is available by calling the church at 227-6311 or visiting the web site at www.hohchurch.org. House of Hope is located at 797 Summit Ave., St. Paul, MN 55105-3392. □
